At Junction City Saturday afternoon Ben W. Durham shot and killed John Wright, with whom he had a shooting affray several years ago. Only one shot was fired, the ball breaking Wright's neck. We are told that Wright was attempting to draw his weapon when Mr. Durham fired. In their fight before Mr. Durham was shot in the ankle, making it necessary to amputate the foot. Wright was shot through one of his lungs.

HE WAS BRED IN OLD KENTUCKY.—The funniest man in minstrelsy, the best dancer, the hardest worker, is the comical, lanky, "sure enough" comedian and end man, Gov. Bowen, often advertised as the "Kentucky Whirlwind."

To those who know him no introduction or guarantee is required; to those who do not, the best we can say is go and see for yourself. If you don't pronounce him one of the most clever entertainers and original singing and dancing comedians in minstrelsy, you must be hard indeed to please. It is impossible not to be entertained by this performer and his funny capers. He is the acknowledged peer of any singer or dancer in America; his work stands alone, away from all others. But do not forget that "Gov." is only one of the many features and entertainers with the Big Minstrel Show at Walton's Opera House next Saturday night, Sept. 12.

THE biggest and best institution in Stanford, the Stanford Graded and High School, opened its doors yesterday morning and promptly at 8:30 operations began. There were fully 300 pupils present, while the trustees and visitors greatly augmented the attendance. The opening exercises began with a song led by Prof. J. W. Ireland and with Miss Ellen Ballou and Miss Jean Patrick at the organ and piano, respectively. Rev. J. Murray Taylor read from Proverbs and Rev. J. L. Yandle offered prayer. Another song was sung, after which Rev. Taylor gave an interesting and timely talk. He was followed by Prof. Ireland, who outlined the work for the year. This over, the teachers and pupils repaired to their rooms and settled down for nine months of work. Following are the teachers: Miss Annie McKinney, first grade, (which is taught at the college) Mrs. H. D. Phillips, second and third grades, Miss Lena Palmer, fourth grade, Miss Frances Adams, fifth grade, Miss Laura Dye, sixth grade, Miss Annie Dunn, seventh grade, Prof. J. N. Wigginton, High School, Miss Fetto, vocal music and elocution, Miss Ellen Ballou, instrumental music, Miss Charlotte Warren, art, Mrs. W. K. Warner, physical culture, Prof. J. W. Ireland, superintendent. With such an auspicious beginning the present term of the school can but be a successful one. At any rate, it will be if teachers, pupils and parents do their duty, and we have every reason to believe they will. Since the last term a handsome new piano has been added to Miss Ballou's music room and the room has been papered, painted and furnished until it is a thing of beauty and a joy to the accomplished teacher and her pupils.

E. C. JORDAN, of Mason county, W. Va., has opened a hotel at Waynesburg. He will also start a livery stable and feed store there soon.

YESTERDAY was Labor Day but only those who had to do so labored. The banks were closed as tight as clams and Postmaster Florence observed Sunday hours.

SPEAKING.—Congressman Harvey Helm and others will address the people at Kingsville to-morrow, Wednesday night, at 7 o'clock; at Waynesburg at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon and at McKinney at 7 o'clock Friday night. Everybody invited.

A JUNCTION CITY base ball rooster says we were wrong when we said that the Stanford team defeated the nine at that place Wednesday. He says the Junction City boys were victorious by a score of 19 to 7. The Stanford team's captain gave us the score as it was printed.

THE biggest crowd ever at Walton's Opera House is expected Saturday night next, 12th, when Coburn's Greater Minstrels will make fun. They were here two years ago and gave entire satisfaction. The show is larger and better this year, carrying 40 performers, musicians and specialty people.

IN remitting for his paper to June 1910, Mr. Sam H. Rout, formerly of this place but now residing at Gervais, Oregon, says: "I sold my oats at 45c. Will have about four car-loads of Irish potatoes which ought to bring $1 per bushel. This is a great fruit country. Send your good paper on; we greatly enjoy it."

HUNG HIMSELF.—Samuel Lindsay, a bachelor aged about 65, hung himself in his barn near the Crab Orchard depot Thursday afternoon. He had been in bad shape mentally for some time and his sister, Mrs. Matt Holman, watched him as closely as she could, but he gave her the slip and took his life. Deceased had considerable land and was a clever man before his mental trouble came.

THE county board having been organized, it is now the duty of each district to turn over all property and money held by the trustees and treasurers under the old law, to said county board. The old treasurer vacated when the new treasurer qualified. The trustees of Educational Division No. 2 are requested to meet with their teachers at Crab Orchard next Saturday, Sept. 12, at 10 A. M., at which time a new school law will be given each trustee. Everybody invited. G. Singleton, supt.
